

Regarding the “Municipal Tax to be Deducted” Notification

This notification shows the amount of municipal tax that will be deducted from your salary from June of this year to May next year. All employees in Japan have their municipal tax deducted from their salary by their employers, meaning there is no need to pay this tax on by yourself.

(1)-Ⓐ This shows the amount of income you received from your employer from January to December of last year.

(1)-Ⓑ 【Ⓐ – Standard Salary Deduction】 This is your after deducted salary amount.

※ The “Standard Salary Deduction” is a set amount deducted from your salary.

「その他の所得計」…Shows income that was earned, other than from salary.

「主たる給与以外の合算所得区分」 This shows the category/type of this “other” income.

(2)-Ⓒ This shows the total amount of income you earned last year.

(3)-Ⓓ This shows details about your income deductions.

※ There are various income deductions available, for example for persons with disabilities, taking care of dependents etc.

(4) Persons with disabilities, single parent households, and other designations eligible for deductions are indicated here.

(5) 【Ⓒ – Ⓓ】 This is the after deduction amount on which municipal taxes will be based.

(6)- Ⓔ This is the total amount of municipal tax which you will pay this year.

(7) 【Ⓔ – Taxes already paid】 this total subtracts any municipal taxes that you may have paid already.

(8) This will be the amount that will be deducted from your salary each month.

※If you quit your job and return to your home country※

If you quit your job to return to your home country, you should pay the remaining municipal tax balance directly to your company (lump sum payment.) If making a lump sum payment is difficult, the city will send you invoices that you can use to make payments (regular payment.) If you cannot pay off your municipal taxes in full before you return to your home country, you must designate someone to pay the taxes on your behalf. If you do not pay your municipal taxes, you may not be able to return to Japan in the future.
